Described by those lucky enough to have seen him perform as an evocative songwriter with captivating vocals, the self proclaimed optimist sees his talent as a tool to put multiculturalism and community on the map. His underlying messages thread through his strong and free spirited compositions with music being the root of his expression. Born and bred in Brisbane, with a Samoan/French background, Mark grew up surrounded by music. He first picked up a guitar at 16 and unlocked a creativity and passion that has been the root of his expression. It is this creativity and compulsion for pure musical expression and a heart-felt desire to impact people lives with his music that drives Mark.
